Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Harborpark Update: Charlestown Navy Yard, 1986 The Charlestown Navy Yard is now emerging as one of the largest and most successful waterfront rehabilitation projects in the country and one of the city s newest neighborhoods. In the last two years alone the Charlestown Navy Yard has gone from an idea to a reality. Prior to 1984 only four developments in the Charlestown Navy Yard had begun construction and less than $35 million had been invested in the Navy Yard. Since 1984, over $200 million has been invested in or committed to the Navy Yard, eleven projects have completed construction, another seven have begun construction, and fourteen additional projects will be completed by the end of 1988. Over 3,000,000 square feet of space has been approved including over one million square feet of office space and almost one million square feet of residential space. Current planning for the Charlestown Navy Yard is to provide for a balanced mix of residential and commercial space. Toward this end, office space once anticipated for remaining vacant parcels in the New Development Area is being shifted to housing use with a provision for low and moderate income housing. Design guidelines sensitive to the historic character of the Navy Yard will ensure that new development is compatible with the historic waterfront character of the Navy Yard. In addition, the variety of different architects working in the Navy Yard - to date 15 different firms - should help to encourage a variety of design expressions which will add up to a rich, coherent cityscape. A New Town In-Town In a sense the Charlestown Navy Yard is a New Town In-Town. At final...
