

Vote! (Hardback)

By Eileen Christelow

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt (HMH), United States, 2003. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 284 x 239 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Using a towns mayoral election as a model, this lively introduction to voting covers every step in the process, from the start of the campaign all the way to the voting booth. There's even a recount! The cast of characters includes two dogs (and a cat), whose questions and comments mirror those of young readers and help to explain some of an elections more confusing aspects. Told with clarity and wit in Eileen Christelows signature comic-book style and vetted by an expert in voter education, this look at how we choose our leaders turns an often daunting topic into an exciting narrative. Who would have guessed that learning about voting could be so much fun? A timeline of the history of voting in the United States, a glossary of words associated with voting, a discussion of American political parties, and a list of Internet resources are included.
